JEW BAITING CONTINUES.

That Race Is Beginning to Fear Again in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—The baiting of Jews continues in many parts of the country. At Kharkov and Odessa it is assuming enormous proportions, and the greatest alarm for their safety is felt by the Jews living in those towns. A similar animosity against the Jews is displayed at Sestroretsk, only 23 miles from here. The Jewish residents are in such fear that they no longer dare to sleep nights, fearing attack. They have reversed the usual order of affairs, sleeping daytimes and doing their work at night.

SENT HIS BLESSING.

Pope Said He Loved All Americans,
Catholic or Non-Catholic.

Rome, August 1.—The Pope yesterday in receiving in private audience an American pilgrimage made a long address saying that he loved all Americans even the non-Catholics, the latter for liberty they allow the church. He ended by saying: "America has a good right to be called the eldest daughter of the church, for although she entered last among the nations she has given proofs of her loyalty, devotion and tolerance. The Catholics in America are not only protected but respected."

He therefore sent his blessing to all Americans. After the audience the Pope was photographed, surrounded by the entire pilgrimage.

CONDUCTOR EXONERATED.

Commission Finds That Lashaway's
Death Was His Own Fault.

The state board of railroad commissioners have filed their report regarding the death of Edward Lashaway, which occurred near Richmond, June 5. They find he met death through his own actions and exonerate Conductor Powers. Lashaway got into a quarrel with some fellow-passengers. The commissioners find that the altercation and quarrel taking place in the passenger coach was of such a character that Conductor Powers was justified in removing Lashaway from the car and that in doing so Conductor Powers used every reasonable precaution to protect Lashaway from any injury. The fact that Lashaway deliberately made an attempt to escape from Conductor Powers and voluntarily jumped from the moving train was established by the testimony of eye witnesses other than members of the train crew. The testimony of these eye witnesses, as well as the evidence of Conductor Powers and his brakeman, was undisputed. There was some evidence to the effect that Lashaway was more or less under the influence of intoxicating liquor but all the witnesses agreed that he was in a condition to properly care for himself and to go through the train from one car to another without assistance.

The commissioners find that the accident was caused by the voluntary act of Lashaway himself and that no blame attaches to the Central Vermont railway company, its servants or employees.

WATER MAIN BROKE.

Hard Time in Stowe Because of Much Rainfall.

Stowe, August 1.—The high water caused by the heavy rain undermined the village water main where it crosses the river and opened the gate which let the water run out of the entire system. This branch of the system was finally shut off and that part of the village lying on and across the river is without water supply.

At the creamery the failure of the water supply came near causing serious results. A. E. Douglass and F. E. Stafford were engaged connecting the boiler with a private supply of water when the thimble on the engine blew off and the steam and hot water poured out upon the workmen. Both Douglass and Stafford had their arms quite badly burned, but escaped without dangerous injuries. It was feared that the accident would cause the boiler to explode, but fortunately the fire was low and an explosion was avoided.

It will probably be several days before the water in the river falls enough to allow repairing of the break.

UNO BEER AGAIN.

Some of the Stuff Seized at Burlington
Recently.

Burlington, August 1.—Uno beer which quite frequently appeared under the old prohibitory law has again appeared in Burlington. The manufacture of this beverage was once fully explained in a trial of a seizure case in Chittenden county court, when it transpired that Uno was manufactured just for prohibition states. Since the commissioners revoked S. H. Miller's license he has been selling Uno at the same place. Saturday night Sheriff Horton seized a sample from the barrel there and it will be analyzed at the state laboratory. Sheriff Horton also made other searches Saturday night and Sunday. At George Kelley's in Hinesburgh he found a keg of beer. At Joseph Debor's in Winoski some champagne cider and home brewed beer were taken.

A Woodstock Farmer Attacked While Driving His Cows.

Woodstock, Aug. 1.—Joseph K. Hatch, a farmer, aged 60 years, was killed yesterday afternoon by a stag. Mr. Hatch lives on the Bridgewater road and went after the cows as usual. The cows accompanied by the stag came home and as Mr. Hatch was not with them Mr. Hatch's son, Harry, went to look for him. He found his father's body lying in the highway, terribly gored and mangled, especially about the neck. The animal had been ugly for some time and Mr. Hatch carried a heavy stick to defend himself. This was found in the road a short distance from the body. Mr. Hatch is survived by a wife, a son and a daughter.

304 CASES
YELLOW FEVERGreat Scourge Spreads In New Orleans

AND OUTSIDE CITY ALSO

Up to Today There Have Been 62
Deaths—Trains Leaving the City
Now Have to Be Fumigated.

New Orleans, August 1.—Five deaths, 21 new cases and three now feared have occurred during the past 24 hours. Total number of deaths to date... 46. Total cases... 304. A new case was reported from Morgan City today, the first one there. It is expected that before the day is over many new cases will be reported, with possibly deaths, owing to the intense heat. The indications this morning pointed to the warmest day of the year.

The quarantine still continues in Mississippi, Utah, Miss., has wired that it wants its mail fumigated in the future, or it will not be received. The work of cleaning up in the city is progressing rapidly, and the infected district has been cleaned. Gov. Blanchard today informed the state board of health that all cars, passenger and freight, must be fumigated before leaving the city.

A company of militia has been ordered out at Baton Rouge to guard the roads leading into the city. Every entrance is now fully guarded. Instruction has been issued that neither residents nor non-residents will be allowed in the city, who are suspected of having been in any fever-infected district.

Much distress is beginning to appear among the Italian population, growing out of the practical expulsion of the fruit business from Louisiana on account of the quarantine; and relief work is one of the tasks which the Italian societies and citizens' committees will now have to address themselves to.

While the six-day detention order of the board of health lasts, it is expected that all the lines which have been operating fruit steamers into New Orleans will divert their ships to Mobile, and this will throw a couple of thousand laborers, many of them Italians, out of employment.

The average Italian here has a large family and the head of the family cannot long remain in idleness without having to appeal to public charity.

BAFFLES ALL TESTS.

Yellow Fever Case in the New York Detention Hospital.

New York, August 1.—One case of yellow fever which has baffled all tests for twenty-four hours, was reported at the detention hospital yesterday. The patient is Vincent Novio, a stoker on the Segurana. Two very doubtful cases remained up to the very end of the twenty-four-hour blood tests which were made.

Ten members of the Segurana's crew were immunized at the pesthouse last Saturday. One, Thomas McGill, a ship's steward, was declared free from taint of yellow fever at the expiration of the time limit yesterday, but Novio's case demanded additional tests.

Health Officer Doty announced that these tests would be completed yesterday, and that he would hazard no opinion about the stoker, who is a very sick man, until the examination was complete. Seventeen persons taken off the Segurana are all, except Novio, out of danger.

Besides the three cabin passengers previously released, three more of the four remaining suspected passengers were discharged yesterday. The remaining passengers will be set free today. Six of the members of the crew, who were taken to the hospital convalescent on Saturday, are reported with normal temperatures and also will be released today.

Held Today from His Home at Shelburne Point.

Burlington, August 1.—The funeral of the late Captain George Rushlow was held this afternoon at the late home, Shelburne Point, with a large attendance of mourners, including many officials of the Champlain Transportation company, employees of the ship yards and the steamers on Lake Champlain and Lake George, and by neighbors and long time friends. Rev. Mr. Weeks, rector of Trinity church, Shelburne, officiated and hymns were sung by a quartette led by Frank C. Lyon of this city. The bearers were Capt. B. J. Holt and John Ross of Plattsburg, N. Y., Capt. F. J. Hawley and J. A. Barney of Swanton, and D. A. Loomis and Ira F. Joyner of this city. Corbin and burial was made in the Shelburne village cemetery.

SUES RAILROAD
FOR $250,000For Damage Caused by Forest Fires in 1903.

GRAND TRUNK DEFENDANT

Big Lumber Concern Owning Vast Timber Tracts in Northeastern Vermont Is the Plaintiff — Hundreds of Witnesses.

Bloomfield, August 1.—One of the most important civil suits ever tried in Vermont and New Hampshire, and possibly in New England, was started today. It is the continuation of the trial of the suit brought against the Grand Trunk railroad company by the Connecticut Valley Lumber company, George VanDyke of Boston, president, for damages, it is alleged, sustained by the memorable forest fires of 1903 to its timbered lands situated in the organized towns of Bloomfield and Brunswick, and unorganized town of Ferdinand and Lewis in the state of Vermont.

The case will be tried before the three following referees: H. F. Graham of Craftsbury, E. S. Platt of Poultney, and W. H. Taylor of Hardwick. The plaintiff has about 300 witnesses to be heard, while the defendant has over 350, making a total of 650 witnesses to be heard in this great civil suit, which involves in the neighborhood of $250,000. From fifteen to twenty thousand acres of old and young growth timber, both hard and soft wood, were burned over by these destructive fires, which ran for about one month of the driest summer season known for years. Several hundred men fought against the fires day after day without accomplishing much.

Mr. VanDyke, well known as New England's lumber king, will have the following well known attorneys for counsel: Drew, Jordan, Buckley and Shurtleff of Lancaster, N. H., Blodgett and Dunnett of St. Johnsbury, and W. B. C. Stickney of Bethel. Mr. Drew, who will personally conduct the case for the plaintiff, has the reputation of being one of New Hampshire's ablest lawyers, while Mr. Stickney has a similar reputation in his own state. Messrs. Blodgett and Dunnett are two well known lawyers from Caledonia county, Vermont.

The defendant will be represented in the court room by John and George B. Young of Newport, H. B. Ames of Island Pond, LeRoy Hight of Portland and Clarence Hight of Boston. As this is the largest suit ever brought against the Grand Trunk, it will make a hard fight to win.

There are many different opinions as to the length of this trial, but the probable length will be from four to six weeks.

EARLE HOWLAND ARRESTED.

Is Charged With Denuding His Roommate's Wardrobe.

Deputy Sheriff L. C. Lance of Cabot arrived in town today with Earle Howland who is wanted here on the charge of larceny from his roommate, Thomas Baird. On July 29 a warrant for Howland's arrest was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slattery for service on Howland, but when the officer went to find him the man had left. Last night Deputy Slattery got word that Howland was seen on the train coming from St. Albans. Thinking it probable that Howland had gone to Cabot he notified Deputy Lance at that place. The latter arrested Howland at Cabot, and lodged him in the local jail.

It is alleged that Howland stole trousers, brush, comb, etc., the value of which was less than $10. Howland is about 21 years of age.

Corry was elected president, Mrs. Ray Heaton secretary and Mrs. J. S. Vile treasurer. Then the following executive committee was chosen: Mrs. C. H. Baldwin, Mrs. J. W. Brock, Mrs. H. M. Cutler, Mrs. J. A. DeBoer, Mrs. J. B. Este, Mrs. A. W. Ferris, Mrs. C. H. Heaton and Mrs. C. E. Lowe. The ball will be held on the night of October 3, and Wilder's complete orchestra has been engaged to furnish music.

COULDN'T IDENTIFY HIM.

Boston Police Do Not Know Ross Killed in Vermont.

Boston, August 1.—The Boston police attempted to identify the burglar killed near Bennington, Vt., last Friday night, and whom they now understood to be one Daniel Ross of Concord, but were unable to do so from the lack of a detailed description, and the fact that there are three men of the same name of this city who have records and pictures in the rogues' gallery. Each of this trio has done time.

Charles N. Scott who was so severely burned at Burlington a week ago while attempting to extinguish a fire in his boat house, arrived in town this afternoon. He still goes to the hospital in this place each day to have his injuries dressed.

BODY IN CELLAR.

Charles Beaulieu Found It While Excavating Under House.

Charles Beaulieu of West View Place is in trouble, because of a corpse in his cellar which no one can be found to remove and also because his wife has left her home and refuses to return until it is moved.

Mr. Beaulieu purchased of Victor Stacey some 4 or 5 years ago a cottage house on West View Place on land that was formerly used for cemetery purposes. There was no cellar under the house, which Mr. Beaulieu regretted, and this summer he decided to excavate for one. He began work on the undertaking yesterday, and had not dug far before he struck a box. On further excavation he found that it contained a casket, man size. The discovery was a great surprise to him and he quit work at once and proceeded to the city attorney's office to see about having the body removed by the city. The city attorney could give him no assistance and he appealed to Health Officer J. W. Jackson. The latter was of the same opinion that the city had nothing to do with it. Mr. Beaulieu did not feel that he could stand the expense of removing and reintering the body, and so it remained there over night. Meanwhile, Mrs. Beaulieu left the house and refuses to return until the corpse is taken away.

The land in this vicinity on the West Hill, of which Mr. Beaulieu's lot forms a part, was bought and used for a number of years for a Catholic cemetery, but because of the many springs thereon it was discarded for this purpose about ten years ago and all bodies ordered removed to the new cemetery on Prospect street. This was supposed to have been done, and when Mr. Beaulieu purchased his lot it was with the guarantee that it was outside the limits of that part of the cemetery that had been used.

As the cemetery was a private one the city cemetery commissioners have no control and the city attorney does not see that the city is under any obligation to move the body. Fr. P. M. McKenna has offered a lot in the Catholic cemetery free for the reinterment of the body.

No record of the sale of lots was kept by Rev. Fr. Brelivet, who was the pastor in charge when these lots in the West Hill cemetery were disposed of, and while a general notice was given to remove bodies to the new cemetery, lots being furnished free, there may be quite a few remaining in the old cemetery, and when this land was sold to the syndicate that purchased it, it was with the condition that a fence should be kept around that portion where bodies were buried, which has not been lived up to, it is asserted.

The bank was founded in 1864, with a capital stock of $250,000. It has been of great aid in building up the financial interests of Montpelier.

Exhibition at Louisiana Purchase
Exposition—Good Business Management.

At a meeting of the directors of the Barre Granite Manufacturing company, held last evening, a dividend of 90 per cent of the capital paid in was declared to be divided among the shareholders.

This dividend will be paid shortly by the treasurer, F. G. Howland. This was the company that exploited the exhibition of Barre granite at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, last year, and this large dividend to shareholders is a strong testimonial to the able manner in which the directors handled the exhibit. These were Wm. Barclay, F. G. Howland, Wm. Alexander, D. M. Miles, J. E. Smith, Wm. Marr, H. M. Jones, J. A. Croas, F. H. Burke, D. F. Kyle and George Gray.

East Burke and Newark.

The firm of Bugbee & Alexander in this city has purchased quarry land in the towns of Newark and East Burke, comprising 235 acres of sheet granite, the product of what is somewhat similar to the Millford "pink granite." The stock is said to be very good quality. The quarry is located next to that of A. A. Flint of the Flint Granite company, within six miles of the Boston & Maine railroad tracks and a few miles from Lyndonville. Bugbee & Alexander will try to have a spur track of the B. & M. run to the quarry. The Grand Trunk railroad at Island Pond is six miles away also.

WAS FOUND GUILTY.

L. Galliani Fined Yesterday Afternoon
For Breach of the Peace.

L. Galliani was found guilty of breach of the peace in city court late yesterday afternoon after State's Attorney Jackson had presented the state's case and the respondent had made a plea in his own behalf. Galliani thought that the evidence presented tended to his innocence rather than to his guilt, and intimated that if the state's attorney was prosecuting from a political standpoint he didn't have much show of an acquittal. The state's attorney, in rebuttal, declared that he was actuated by no motive of politics or anything save a desire to do the duties of his office.

Then Judge Fay found Galliani guilty of breach of the peace and fined him $10 with costs of $20.87, which the respondent paid.

DISCLOSED ON GOLDIE SUN.

Montpelier Second Offender Says She Furnished Him the Liquor.

Goldie Sun Mossie was in Montpelier city court yesterday afternoon on the charge of furnishing the liquor on which Henry Johnson got gloriously drunk. Henry was convicted of a second offense and when called upon to disclose named this woman. The court bound Goldie over to the September term of Washington county court, bail of $400 being furnished by James McNulty, by whom she is said to be employed.

Besides the liquor seizure cases, from Sunday's raid, there were several other respondents in the Montpelier mill of justice. Belotti Dominico and Pasche Bartolli pleaded guilty to a first offense of intoxication and paid their fines. To a charge of second offense of getting drunk Henry Johnson pleaded guilty. His fine and costs amount to $24.20. The case was held open as there is yet another charge to be brought against the man, that of breach of the peace. Last night Marcus B. Forbes admitted that he had been drunk two times and paid a fine of $15.

Louis Asasosi admitted that he handled out a few to Joseph Cano and paid for breach of the peace.
